

WHERE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL NOW STANDS; PICTURE WAS TAKEN 26 YEARS AGO—OLD WASHINGTON SCHOOL

The accompanying photograph shows the teacher and pupils of the sixth grade of the old Washington grammar school—located on the site of the present Central high school—taken 26 years ago. The teacher, Miss Belle Calverley, is now principal of the Jefferson school.

The persons in the group are: Oscar Johnson, a postal clerk in Duluth, Henry Leopold, now in the west;

Cornie Dow, Louis Rogers, deceased; Henry Oestreich, cigar maker, Duluth; Louis Johns, whereabouts unknown; Julia Rutchie, deceased; Lottie Norris, Duluth, Max Wirth, deceased; Frank Kenny, deceased; Joe Lloyd, captain on lake vessel; Charlie Wayland, whereabouts unknown; John E. Wessenberg, advertising solicitor, News Tribune; Fred Wessenberg Jr., Wisconsin stock farmer; Adam Scarlett, whereabouts unknown; Robert Bloedall, whereabouts unknown; Henry Melning, millowner, southern Minnesota; Charlie Krelwitz, sawyer; Richard Curtis, whereabouts unknown; Dr. W. H. Olson, dentist, Duluth; Iver Wisted, city clerk, Ely, Minn.; Mies Zimmerman, whereabouts unknown; Helga Reitz, now Mrs. N. A. Linderberg, Duluth; Glen Robuck, Alex McKenzie, Vina Scarlett, Phorb Gundy and Nell Clark, whereabouts unknown.