

MANY ATTEND THE SECOND OPEN DANCE AT CENTRAL SCHOOL

More than 100 persons were present last night at the second of the open dances given at Central high school. The corridors were decorated in red and white, the school colors, and potted palms were used effectively. Miller's orchestra furnished the music.

The last open dance will be the junior-senior hop June 17. Members of the committee on arrangements were: Seniors, Townsend Hoopes, Margaret Johnson, Robert Kerr and Mary Middlecoff; juniors, Norman Tufty, Mildred Wahl, Philip Mars and Beatrice Miller; sophomores, Max Goldberg, Roberta Ritchie, Sherman O'Brien and Dorothy Erickson; freshmen, Benton Stearns, Agnes Ewell, Anna Garon and John Stephenson.
