

LAKE BREEZES

Independent Order of Foresters will entertain at a dancing party at the Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue West and First street, tonight.

If party seen taking flag from Grand Army plot, Forest Hill cemetery two years ago, will return flag immediately to Women's Relief corps, Memorial hall, no questions will be asked.

H. G. COHN RETURNS.

H. G. Cohn returned yesterday from a three-day business trip to Minneapolis.

BRADLEY IS DELEGATE.

Frank Bradley, manager of the Fifth Avenue hotel, has been chosen by the local Bartenders' union as delegate to the convention of the International union to be held in San Francisco the week of June 8.

"The Ambassador" at the Y. W. C. A., May 28, given by the High School club. Admission 25c.

RAILROAD AGENTS IN CITY.

"Jack" Chandler, traveling passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad; Robert Haas, traveling passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and D. A. Small, traveling freight agent of the Erie railroad, all of St. Paul, were in Duluth on business yesterday.

MUNGER CLUB TO MEET.

The Munger Improvement club will hold a regular meeting tonight at Munger school, Twelfth avenue East and Eighth street. H. R. Kohagen, chairman of the bridge committee, will report on progress of the committee in obtaining construction of a bridge over Chester creek at Ninth street.

SUSPEND PARCEL POST TO ITALY.

Parcel post transportation from United States to Italy has been suspended temporarily, according to a ruling received yesterday from Washington by William E. McEwen, postmaster. A postage refund will be made on all parcels sent from the United States to Italy since the decree went into effect, provided the sender makes proper application to his local postoffice, McEwen said.

CONCERT AT SYNAGOGUE.

Russian grand opera selections, Hebrew hymns and Jewish folk songs will be sung by Cantor A. Leibovitz and his quartet in Adas Israel synagogue tonight and tomorrow morning. A concert will be given at 7:30 o'clock Sunday. Vocal soloists will be David Lenavitz and I. Urofsky. Harry Leibovitz will play a violin solo.

WOMAN SENT TO JAIL.

Anna Lewis, arrested last week after a complaint was made to the police that she had robbed a guest at her home, 120½ South First avenue East, of $10, was arraigned yesterday in municipal court before Judge F. H. Cutting on a charge of soliciting. She was given 90 days in the county jail.

PATENT FOR CAR STEP.

John R. Kunzelman, 518½ Lake avenue North, has received a patent on an auxiliary step for car platforms, according to a Washington dispatch received yesterday. The step is attached to the lower step of the train, and takes the place of the stool used by most railroads. It is self-adjusting, can be dropped to any level lower than the regular step, and can be folded when not in use.

GREENBLAT RETURNS.

Monte A. Greenblat of the Mauley McLennan company, returned yesterday from Edmonton, Can.

Decoration Day Flowers and Plants.
DULUTH FLORAL CO.