

ELY, MINN.

ELY, Minn.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Freeman of Olivia were guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Lockhart Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Freeman is a practicing attorney at Olivia and is prominent in Democratic circles of Renville county.

James Moonan left Saturday for Minneapolis on a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Loren S. Pfautz of Duluth is in charge of the local railroad affairs of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad during Mr. Moonan's absence.

H. E. Shepherd and family have moved into their home on Chapman street, recently occupied by the Wisted family. Mr. Shepherd purchased his new residence from Benjamin Horawitz last summer.

Howard Nikolas returned from Mankato, where he holds the position of assistant manual training instructor at the Mankato high school. He will pass the summer here and return to his duties in September.

Mrs. C. M. Hanson returned the first of the week after having passed several days in Michigan visiting friends and relatives.

Mayor Peter Karon of Winton passed several hours in Ely Saturday on business.

Attorney Howard Anderson of Grand Rapids passed Saturday and Sunday here visiting friends. Mr. Anderson was formerly connected with the Ely schools as principal, and teacher of the grade schools.

Ernest Knutson, who was graduated last week from the manual training department of the Stout institute, returned Saturday and will pass the summer with his parents.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Koivumaki and child left Monday for Hancock, Mich., where they will pass several days.

Messrs. Alvin Schaefer, Stuart Schaefer, Joseph Prisk, August Hilpakka and John Rautio returned from Stout institute, Menomonie, Wis., to pass their vacation with their parents. Alvin Schaefer and John Rautio completed the manual training course and received their diplomas last week.

Mrs. F. C. Cearveny of Eveleth is here on a 10 days' visit with her son, F. D. Cerveny.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Conan and son, are passing the week in St. Paul, visiting friends and relatives.