

BESSEMER, MICH.

BESSEMER, Mich.—The board of education has re-engaged C. R. Cobb as superintendent of schools for the ensuing term.

Messrs. Ivar H. Hagen, Alex Strom and William J. Russel have been appointed election commissioners for the annual school election to be held at the Washington building, July 12.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. K. S. Markstrom Wednesday afternoon.

Will Ryan left Tuesday for a two months' trip in the west. He will return by way of Vancouver and Duluth.

Dr. Reuben Harrington has accepted a position at the Newport hospital at Ironwood. He will assume his new duties July 1.

George Travorthen has opened a jewelry store in with the E. G. Peterson confectionery store.

Mabel Johnson, Anna Olson and Mae McKie of Bessemer are among the 74 students to graduate from the Northern State Normal at Marquette.

Miss Mae Sobey left Friday for Hancock, where she will pass the summer.

Rev. G. A. Ekeberg left for Peoria, Ill., where he will pass the summer vacation and preach in place of his son, Rev. Waldo Ekeberg, who is to pass the summer here and serve the Swedish Lutheran church. The exchange took place Sunday.

Eric Martinson and Miss Rose Maki of Wakefield were quietly married Wednesday at the Swedish Lutheran parsonage by Rev. Ekeberg.

Miss Hilda Apila, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Apila, underwent an operation at the Gogebic hospital.

Rev. C. M. Fraser of the Presbyterian church delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class Sunday evening at the high school.

Miss Irene Trenbath, music director, left Friday for her home at Ishpeming.

The class play entitled "The Heavenly Twins," was given Monday night at the opera house by members of the class. William H. Klekhoefer gave the commencement address Wednesday night. The following are members of the class of 1915: Maurice Abelman, Marie Victoria Brighenti, John Jerome Donich, Donald Lovat Fraser, Dorothy Sophia Frank, Adolph J. Gedda, Mildred Lenora Holdorf, Ellen Sophia Jacobson, George A. Larson, Winnifred Lavers, Cella Kathyrine Maccani, Walter R. Olson, Ellen Elenora Stonemark, Adolph Bernard Prabosky, Mabel Louise Roberts, Rutherford Solberg, William Jennings Taylor, Florence Adeline Rupp and Carl Victor Wigg.