

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

BUHL, MINN.

Theodore Cobb is visiting with William McDonald this week.

Mrs. Emma Henry returned home Saturday from Nashwauk, where she has been visiting friends and relatives the last week.

Clyde Dunlap, representing Veterinary Surgeon Guldinger of Virginia, was in the city Friday.

Miss Manilla Savor began work as telephone operator at the Buhl exchange Saturday. She will relieve the girls until each has had her vacation.

Bob Johnson and Matt Gomi of Eveleth were here visiting friends Saturday.

Fred Gates of Virginia was here on business Friday.

A number from here attended the dance at Hibbing Saturday. On their way home the machine broke down and they were forced to make the rest of the trip on the street car.

Miss Elizabeth Holmes, who is employed at the Medalle Brothers' store, is enjoying a three weeks' vacation with relatives and friends at Ironwood.

Miss Ellen Anderson, village stenographer returned to Buhl Monday from Metropolitan, Mich., where she had been on her vacation.

Matthew Medalle visited at Chisholm Sunday.

Miss Jennie Strong and Miss Ellen Bloomquist of Chisholm, with two young men from Chisholm, attended the dance here Saturday.

Tom Shepherd visited friends in Hibbing Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson of Kinney celebrated Independence day in Buhl with friends.

Dr. A. Nichols passed Monday evening in Virginia.

Nels Peterson, formerly employed by Butler Brothers at this place, now employed by the same firm at Kewadin, passed Monday here with several of his old friends.

Miss Alma Hakonen passed Monday with friends in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson of Duluth visited with friends and relatives here during the week.

Herbert Nelson of Chisholm celebrated with his many friends here Monday.

Charles Dudley visited friends in Virginia Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Demel motored to Aurora Monday, where they visited friends.

Oscar Woolrich of Mountain Iron visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. White of Mesabe were guests at the Demel home Sunday and Monday.

Erick Nyland of Kinney visited friends here Saturday.

Frank Vertin of Virginia, agent for the Virginia Brewing company, transacted business here Saturday.

John Sagerstrand and Earl Larzway were fishing at Spirit Lake Saturday.

Jama Murphy went to Virginia Monday to visit relatives and attend the ball game between Fort William and Virginia.

Dr. F. O. Richards, his wife and child, and Charles A. Shaver and wife of Shell Lake, Wis., who motored here from that place Monday, were guests of Chancey Mills.

Hanford Cox and sister, Miss Lilla Cox of Cloquet, motored here on Saturday.

Ludwig Clun of Eveleth, who recently returned to that city from St. John's college, has been in the city since Tuesday visiting with friends.

Peter Peterson and family of Kinney passed the Fourth in Buhl with friends.

Misses Irene Anderson, Thad Bean and P. Forsberg motored to Virginia Tuesday.

John F. Doherty was a Hibbing visitor Monday.

Ellery Anderson of Duluth motored here in his new Maxwell.

Misses Lena Hammerstrom and Ellen Erickson attended the Eagles' dance at Virginia Monday.

James Moore, several years a resident of this place, left for Superior Tuesday, where he will be employed in the future as a machinist.

Peter Simonson and family passed Sunday at Chisholm.

M. A. Medalle passed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shapiro at Chisholm.

Mrs. Manson, mother of Walter Manson of this city, is passing the week at the home of another of her sons, Max Manson, of Chisholm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Manson passed Sunday at the home of Max Manson at Chisholm.

J. W. Heida of the Virginia Engineering company was here on business Tuesday.

A party consisting of three auto loads of young folks from Proctor were among those who attended the Fourth of July celebration here Monday.

Miss Manilla Savor relieved Miss Bentla at the telephone exchange Wednesday. Miss Bentla is spending her vacation with her mother at Ironwood, Mich. She left Wednesday noon.