

BENEFIT PICNIC TO HELP WAR SUFFERERS

Funds for relief of Jewish sufferers in the European war zone will be raised by Covenant lodge, Independent Order B'nai B'rith at a moonlight picnic July 28. The steamer Columbia will be used.

Max Oreckovsky, chairman of the arrangements committee, announced yesterday that a systematic canvass of the city will be made in order to insure a heavy sale of tickets. Harry S. Davis will have charge of the ticket sale. It is hoped to raise $400.
