

BUHL, MINN.

BUHL, Minn.—Walter Johnson of Virginia motored through Buhl Tuesday. He stopped a few hours, visiting with James McDonald. The S. H. and E. F. society gave an enjoyable dancing party here Friday night.

Ellen Erickson of Hibbing passed Sunday with her parents in this village.

Frank G. Harris of Chisholm was in the city on business for a short time Monday.

Mrs. Rovelsky made a trip to Duluth Sunday to meet her mother-in-law who was en route here from her home at Detroit, Mich., to make her son, Ivon Rovelsky, a visit of a week or so.

Mayor George Barret was in Duluth and St. Paul on business this week.

A. R. Folsom, brother of R. A. Folsom, visited friends and relatives at Minneapolis and Lake Crystal this week.

Contractor Gust Anderson of Chisholm is constructing a modern brick building at Kinney for Mr. Sakolaat at that place to be used as a grocery store.

Miss Inez Petilla of the village and a graduate of the Buhl high school class of 1913, who has been attending the Milwaukee County Hospital Training school at Wauwatossa, Wis., returned home Monday to pass her vacation with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Henry, is visiting friends and relatives at Nashwauk this week.

Miss Myrtle Donahue and William McDonald passed several days visiting friends and relatives at Forbes.

William Pelican, Barney Savor and Ike Anderson motored to Chisholm Sunday.

Miss Freda Murray of Mountain Iron was the guest of Miss Mary Teske Tuesday.