

Perlman - Berkson Nuptials Followed by Large Reception

A beautiful wedding ceremony took place yesterday afternoon when Miss Sadie Evana Berkson, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Berkson, 613 East First street, became the bride of Joseph Perlman of Sacramento, Cal. Dr. Maurice Lefkowitz read the service in the presence of 50 relatives. Mrs. Benjamin D. Bennett, of International Falls, Minn., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Miss Ida Berkson, another sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Miss Mary Simon, the bride's cousin, was the bridesmaid. Vernon Weinstein was the ring bearer. Jacob Perlman of St. Paul, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Louis Perlman of St. Paul, another brother of the bridegroom, was an attendant. La Brosse's orchestra played the festal music from "Lohengrin," as the bridal party entered, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recessional.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of Duchess satin made on simple lines with full court train from the shoulders, with tulle and pearl trimmings. Her long tulle veil was arranged in cap effect with clusters of lilies of the valley combined with myrtle. The bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and sweet peas. The matron of honor wore her wedding gown, an imported overdress of seed pearls with real lace yoke over white satin, made en traine. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

The maid of honor wore a dainty gown of Chinese-chaumouse with pale green silk crepe butterfly fashioned at the back. Tiny rose buds gave a delightful note to the bodice, which had silver trimming. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was gowned in blue pussy willow taffeta with silver trimming and she carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The ring bearer wore a black velvet suit and carried the ring in a lily.

Mrs. Jennie Berkson, mother of the bride, wore a handsome black silk lace gown over wistaria satin, with jet trimming. She wore a corsage bouquet of lavender sweet peas.

A reception for 200 guests was held last night in the ballroom of the Temple building. Palms were artistically arranged about the room. In the receiving line with the bridal party were the bride's mother and Mr. and Mrs. S. Perlman of St. Paul, parents of the bridegroom. Assisting were Mrs. H. B. Weinstein; Miss Bess Markowitz and Miss Sara Hurvitch. La Brosse's orchestra played.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Perlman, Louis Pavian, Samuel Pavian, Phil T. Perlman, Jacob Perlman and Louis Perlman, all of St. Paul; M. C. Perlman of Lincoln, Neb., and Harry Chelemsky of Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Perlman left for a trip to the exposition at San Francisco after which they will make their home at the Travelers' hotel at Sacramento. The bride wore a peacock blue silk poplin traveling suit with black and white hat.
