

VISITS IN CITY EN ROUTE EAST

Dr. Stanley R. Holden and Mrs. Holden, 1022 East Second street, have as their guest for a few days, Donald Webster of Minneapolis, who will go by boat from here to the east where he will join Winthrop Ames. Mr. Webster made a successful appearance in "Kismet." His connection with Mr. Ames will open the way for still further dramatic successes, it is expected. He directed the presentation of the play, "Her Husband's Wife," given by members of the Drama league at the Orpheum theater early this summer.

Duluth Review, No. 1. Woman's Benefit association of Maccabees, will meet tomorrow night at Maccabee hall 31 Lake avenue North. Mrs. Annie De Mars and Mrs. Minnie Bretta, both of Minneapolis, state deputies, will be present. Balloting on candidates will take place. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. L. Rich and children of Virginia returned to their home yesterday afternoon after a two months' visit to Mrs. Rich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Mainella, 11 Eleventh avenue West. They were accompanied by Miss Minnie Mainella, who will be the guest of her sister for two weeks.

Mrs. E. Brusin, 324 East Sixth street, was the honor guest at a surprise party last night given by the Young Women's Hebrew Library club. Twenty-four guests attended. The honor guest was presented with a silver fruit dish.

Miss Sylvia Idzal of Minneapolis is the guest of Mrs. Leo Idzal, who is passing the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sattler, 116 Seventh avenue East.

Miss Lydia Nelson of the Y. W. C. A. left yesterday for a trip down the lakes and a visit at her home in Jamestown, N. Y., remaining away for a month.
