

WHO'S WHO AT CLOQUET; WHAT THEY ARE DOING

(News Tribune Special.)

CLOQUET, Minn., April 10.—Miss Mildred Peterson who is teaching at Brookston, passed the week end at her home.

Miss Nellie Gardner passed Sunday with relatives at Superior.

Alex McPhee and Sam Johnson passed Sunday with their wives who are patients in St. Lukes' hospital, Duluth.

Miss Charlotte Enroth, who is teaching in Duluth passed Sunday with her parents in this city.

Ike Markowitz passed Sunday with his parents in Duluth.

Maurice Brunnelle of Minneapolis, is here on a two weeks' vacation.

Frances Underhill, who is teaching at Brownell, passed the week end at her home here.

Rev. A. F. Peterson left this morning on a business trip to Minneapolis.

Mrs. E. S. Davis, Mrs. A. J. Taylor and daughter Margaret, were Duluth visitors today.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Delyea passed the day with Mr. Delyea's sister, Gladys, who is a patient in St. Mary's hospital at Duluth.

Miss Cobbins left this morning for a short visit with friends in Minneapolis.

Fred C. Johnson, passed the day in Duluth on business.

Rev. O. Sletten, who preached here yesterday at the Norwegian Lutheran church, returned this morning to his home at Minneapolis.

Carl E. Anderson passed today at Duluth on business.

E. S. Davis returned this morning from Chippewa Falls, Wis., where he attended the funeral of John Dunleavy.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Norwegian Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon. Mesdames Ilen, Martinson, Ed Berg, and Chris Nelson will entertain.

Mrs. H. E. Goebler of Minneapolis, is home to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Lizzie Smith, which takes place Wednesday.

Miss Iva Olson returned to her home at Minneapolis today after a few days' visit with friends in this city.

William Coyne, who is working at Brainerd, is visiting his family a few days.