

CELEBRATES HIS SIXTH BIRTHDAY

RALPH OXMAN.

Ralph Oxman, 5 East Fifth street, entertained 12 guests at a theater party at the Grand Thursday in honor of his sixth birthday anniversary. A luncheon followed the theater party.

A surprise party was given Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Sophie Holt, 121 West Second street, who will be a bride of this month. She was presented with a chest of silver. The guests were Mrs. Hilda Myers, Mrs. Ida Huber, Mrs. Rose Paradise, Mrs. Florence Hyde, Mrs. Cora Smith, Miss Myrtle Nye, Miss Mamie Stabs, Miss Christine Wallinskie, Miss Margaret Holt, Miss Emma Ryberg, Miss Emma Younger and Miss B. Engebuksten.

Miss Jennie Landfald and Miss Matilda Landfald, 1017 East Fifth street, were hostesses at an informal party Wednesday night for the Sunday school teachers of First Norwegian Lutheran church in compliment to Miss Austrie Wold, a bride-elect. A cut glass water set was presented the honor guest.

Mrs. Frank Fenstermacher, 1006 Thirteenth avenue East, was the guest of honor at a surprise party Friday afternoon. Bridge was the amusement and favors were won by Mrs. N. A. Young and Mrs. W. G. Ulrich.

Leah Kenigsburg entertained at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. M. Bloom, 31 West Fifth street. Monday, the occasion on being her eleventh birthday anniversary. Mrs. Bloom and Mrs. Markowitz assisted. The guests were Annette Hirshfield, Beatrice Hirshfield, Eleanor Hirshfield, Stella Markowitz, Edythe Nelson, Ruth Aras, Mabel Hoffheim, Raymond Johnson, Arthur Lane and Edmund Kenigsburg.

Miss Mary O'Brien, 22 East Winona street, who has been visiting in Virginia, returned to her home Monday.