

CELEBRATE MARRIAGE ON FOURTH

Miss Sarah Daneiko and Lyle A. Oreck Married, at Home of Bride's Parents—Take Month's Trip.

A pretty summer wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Daneiko, 721 East Third street, at 5 o'clock last night, when their daughter, Sarah Ann, became the bride of Lyle Abbet Oreck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel A. Oreck of this city. The service was read at 5 o'clock by Rabbi Levine. Mrs. Samuel Polans (Sally Oreck), sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor, and Samuel Polans was best man. Little Marcia Polinsky, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The Esther Gomberg orchestra played the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the bridal party entered, and during the service Schubert's "Serenade" was played. Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional, and a program of music was played during the dinner.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white silk net over taffeta and made extremely short with deep flounces. Chantilly lace and pearl trimming adorned the bodice. The tulle veil, which formed a long train, was held about the head by a pearl band. The bride held a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor wore a fluffy pink taffeta and tulle gown and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. The ring bearer wore a white frock trimmed in blue and carried pink sweet peas in a blue and white basket.

A wedding dinner for 50 followed the ceremony. Peonies and snowballs were the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Oreck left last night for the Twin Cities, after which they will proceed to a summer resort to remain for a month. They will be at home after Aug. 15, at 1014 East Third street. The bride wore a blue taffeta traveling costume.
