

UNABLE TO RECOVER BODY OF KLATZKY BOY

The body of Theodore Klatzky, who was drowned in a swimming hole near his home, 12 miles from Duluth on the Pike Lake road, last Monday, has not yet been recovered. The lad is survived by his parents, three brothers and four sisters. Two of his brothers were in swimming with him, but are unable to give a clear account of how the lad met death.