

DULUTH BRIDE WHO WILL MAKE HER HOME IN INDIANAPOLIS

MRS. MORRIS RAPOPORT (IRMA LEVIN.)

One of the marriages of the summer, which will take a Duluth girl to Indianapolis to live, was that of Miss Irma Levin and Morris Rapoport of Indianapolis, which took place at 6 o'clock last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel I. Levin, West Third street.

Easter lilies, palms and tall candles formed the altar, and the candles furnished the only light during the ceremony. Flaaten's orchestra played the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the bridal party entered and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as recessional. Rev. Maurice Lefkowitz read the service.

The bride wore a gown of shimmering cloth of silver with bouffant overskirt of tulle. The bodice was also of tulle. The bride's veil fell over a court train and was held about her head with a band of orange blossoms, which were also caught on the gown, giving a Grecian effect. She held a bouquet of orchids, from which fell a shower of lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Edith Halle of Cleveland, Ohio, a classmate of the bride at Chevy Chase, was the maid of honor. She was gowned in a dainty creation of pink tulle over silk and she carried an armful of pink roses. Leo Shapiro Jr. of Minneapolis, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer, and he wore a white silk suit and carried the ring in a lily.

Mrs. Levin, the bride's mother, wore a handsome gown of cloth of silver and lace with thread lace trimming. Miss Irene Levin, the bride's young sister, wore a frock of pale green tulle over pink silk, with taffeta ribbon trimming in roses and deep green. Silver lace was used on the bodice.

Miss Marguerite Joseph of Indianapolis, who is a house guest at the Levin home, was gowned in orchid silk embroidered in silver and trimmed with maline and an apron of rose point lace. A band of Copenhagen blue velvet ribbon was caught at the waist. Her sister, Miss Harriet Joseph, who was a classmate of Miss Levin at Chevy Chase, wore a gown of blue net over cloth of gold with sequins.

A. Borinstein of Indianapolis was best man.

A large reception followed the ceremony, which was witnessed by the immediate relatives. Great baskets of larkspur decorated the stairway and reception hall, and in the library baskets of deep pink peonies were placed. Roses and gypsophila were combined as a centerpiece at the dining table, where pink candles gave an effective appearance. Tiny baskets of pink sweet peas were placed about the dining room.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Halle,

Mrs. Ruth Cohen and Miss Constance Mayer of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Etrovinson, Miss Harriet Joseph, Miss Marguerite Joseph and A. Borinstein, all of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rapoport and son, Irving and David Rapoport, all of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Shapiro and Leo Shapiro Jr. of Minneapolis.

The bride was a member of the 1913 class at Chevy Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Rapoport left for an eastern trip and after Sept. 1, will be at home at the Severin hotel, Indianapolis. The bride wore a blue taffeta silk traveling costume.

♦ ♦ ♦

Miss Violet McCabe, a bride of August, was the guest of honor at an evening affair given by Miss Abbie Powers, Miss Mary Powers and Miss Belle Powers, 204 East Fourth street. A color scheme of yellow and white was used about the rooms. Twenty-five guests were present.

♦ ♦ ♦

Mrs. Esther Stitt, president of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans, will entertain the members of the auxiliary at a special meeting tonight at her home, 211 Tenth avenue East. Business of importance will be discussed.

♦ ♦ ♦

Irvin Safford and Miss Mary Falor, who have been visiting Mrs. Dennis Mealy, 611 Garfield avenue, have returned to their home in Saxon, Wis.

♦ ♦ ♦

The picnic which was to have been held today at Lester park by John G. McEwen auxiliary, No. 3, U. S. W. V., has been indefinitely postponed.

♦ ♦ ♦

Mrs. George T. Stevenson and little daughter, Mary Burns, 314 East Second street, will leave today for Philadelphia to join Mrs. Stevenson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Prophet, at Beach Haven, N. J., where they are passing the month of August.