

EVELETH COUNCIL IS TO BE REORGANIZED

EVELETH, Dec. 31.—At the meeting of the city council Tuesday night there will be a reorganization of the commission. S. H. Owens and George Mesberg will retire from office and turn their seats over to D. A. Murray and J. M. Trevarrow.

Members of the new council recently held a meeting, but no information of the course decided upon has been given out. The city clerk, chief of police, fire chief, street commissioner, treasurer, attorney, engineer and assistants will be appointed, though few changes are expected.

J. S. Saari will again be mayor.
