

Miss Levine Becomes Bride of A. Oreckovsky.

Miss Anna Gladys Levine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Levine, 524 Lake avenue North, became the bride of Abe Oreckovsky of this city at 6 o'clock last night at Adash Israel synagogue. Rev. W. Kissin and Rev. Israel Teplitz read the marriage ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin trimmed with silver and pearl ornaments. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught in cap effect about her head.

Miss Mame Levine, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and she was gowned in green taffeta and chiffon with silver trimming. She carried a basket of sunburst roses. Miss Ida Levine, another sister of the bride, and Miss Ida Oreck were the bridesmaids. Miss Levine was gowned in yellow taffeta with silver trimming and she carried pink roses. Miss Oreck wore a rainbow gown trimmed with pink velvet and pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. Little Etta Levine, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white frock and carried a basket of pink roses in which was placed the wedding ring. Ralph Oxman, nephew of the bridegroom, and Irving Oreckovsky, the bridegroom's brother, were the ribbon bearers. J. Oreckovsky was his mother's best man, and the bridegroom's other attendants were Lloyd Levine and Jack Levine. The ushers were Charles Finkelstein, Mandy Finkelstein, Meyer Packer, William Oxman, Morris Altman and Harry Levine.

La Brosse's orchestra played the wedding music and also at the reception which followed the ceremony at Almud Terah clubrooms, 175 guests attending. Palms and roses were the decorations.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Fink and their daughter, Miss Della Fink of St. Paul, Miss Rose Leborvitz and Miss Molly Jozen, and J. Confield, all of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Oreckovsky left for a trip to the Twin Cities and they will make their home at 1029 East Ninth street after Jan. 20.
