ACRORA MAN DIES IN OHIO. AURORA. Jan. 14.-Abe Levin, the 22-year-old son of Marcus Levin, a well-known dry goods merchant of the village, died ve gerday at Cincinnati. Ohio, to which place he had recently gone for an operation, which was per-gone for an operation, which was performed two days before death occurred. The young man had suffered for several months and it was thought that an operation might save him.