M.F.W.C. Call Midwinter Meeting

Federated club women of the state have received the call for the midwinter meeting of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs. The call goes to the members of 350 clubs in Minnesota. The meeting will be in St. Paul, Feb. 11 and 12.

In connection with the midwinter breakfast there will be a number of sociological tours this year as there were last. This year women from the state will be afforded an opportunity to visit points of interest in St. Paul. Committees doing social welfare and civic work will find the tours especially worth while.

The places visited will include the Wilder baths, city and county hospital, state capitol, the hospital for crippled children at Lake Phalen, the agricultural college, the Catholic Guild hall and sanitary food factories. The sociological tours will be taken on Friday, Feb. 11.

The program for Saturday, Feb. 12, includes a council meeting lasting from 9:30 until noon, a reception at 12:30 and the luncheon at 1:30. The afternoon program, at which Dr. Thomas H. McBride of Iowa City is to be the speaker, will be at 2:30.

Tickets for the breakfast are $1.25. Out-of-town clubs may secure tickets by sending remittances with self-addressed envelopes to Mrs. George H. Hayes, 1758 Laurel avenue, St. Paul. The sale is to be completed Feb. 10.
