

BANQUET AND DANCE GIVEN BY GRADUATES

The graduating exercises for the eighth grade of the Carpenter school were held last night. Twenty-nine members of the graduating class dined together and listened to remarks by Prof. Paul Clemens, who, in the absence of V. E. McCaskill, presented the diplomas.

A dance followed the presentation of diplomas, lasting until about midnight.

The officers of the graduating class are: Robert Duff, president; Gertrude Jacobinas, vice president; Olaf Sorenson, treasurer; and Sophie Frank, secretary.

The class colors of cardinal and white were hung around the hall.

Following is a list of the graduates: Marvin Johnson, Arvid Olson; Frank Martovitch, Chester Nesbit, Bernie Ovetsky, Edward Peterson, Willard Norman, Myer Shapiro, Heleard Smith, Olaf Sorenson, Sarah Arnowitz, Mae Dally, Sophie Frank, Aili Greenwall, Gertrude Jacobinas, Florence King, Hilma Maki, Ruth Phillips, Anna Schlen, Ewald Ahlstrom, Edgar Almquist, George Barthelmy, Ernest Bjerklien, George Boroff, Adam Burzynski, Robert Duff, Elmer Groehler, Evert Hedstrom and Andrew Jackson.
