

Weddings-Engagements

A pretty wedding took place at the K. of P. hall last evening, when Miss Anna Paletz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Paletz of Fourth avenue, became the bride of Max Goldberg, son of Mrs. J. Goldberg of Fargo. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock by Rev. B. Papermaster, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives of the young people.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de meteor with trimmings of silver lace, and was attended by her sister, Miss Sarah Paletz as maid of honor, and six of her girl friends as bridesmaids. Jake Goldberg of Fargo, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. I. Papermaster and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Papermaster were also among the attendants. Little Miss Ethellibby Papermaster, acted as the train bearer for the bride.

After the ceremony the wedding supper was served and places were laid for nearly 100 guests. The evening hours were spent in a social way, and frappe and wafers were served. Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg will leave tomorrow noon for Fargo, where they will visit for a few days, before leaving on an extended eastern trip. They will be at home to their friends in Fargo after February 1.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. J. Goldberg, Mrs. W. Gilles, Misses Mary Goldberg, Gusta Goldstein, A. Human, Louis and Jake Goldberg, Louis Sachs, M. Levitz, H. Halpern and Miss Lena Richman of Minneapolis.
