

'HIAWATHA'S CHILDHOOD'

PRESENTED BY STUDENTS

CHISHOLM, Dec. 21.—Pupils of the eighth grade of the Chisholm high school last night staged the operetta, "Hiawatha's Childhood." Moses Hoberman, Walter Lewis, Ralph Greenthal and Frank Tramon-tin in turn represented Hiawatha from babyhood to manhood. Others with roles were: Myrtle De Rozler as Nakomis; Leona Train as Mudjekeewis; Arthur Rubloff as Iagoo; Arthur Bergeron, Joe Valentine and Nels Johnson as Indian youths; Sally Johnson, Sophie Gersich and Rose Klink as Indian maidens. In addition there were Indian warriors, wind spirits, phantoms and fireflies. Miss Alberta Park and Miss Mabel Pearsons directed rehearsals. The setting for the operetta was a forest on the shores of a lake, with a wigwam in the foreground.
