ORE CRASHED THROUGH WINDOW.

EVELETH, Dec. 23.—A mass of iron ore weighing 20 pounds, blasted from one of the mines here, crashed through the window of the Solomon Sax building on Grant avenue. No one was in the room at the time.