

MUCH CANDY IS DISTRIBUTED BY BUHL 'VILLAGE FATHERS'

---

BUHL, Dec. 23.—About $130 worth of candy was distributed tonight at the village hall to children who had gathered about the municipal Christmas tree.

Last night at the high school Christmas was observed with one of the most successful operettas staged by the Buhl pupils during the season. The operetta was "Christmas With the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." The cast of characters was:

Santa Clause, Michael Stefanich; the Fairy Godmother, Amelia Pasich; Mother Goose, Clara Grant; Goody Green, the old woman who lived in a shoe, Margaret Nichols; Whistling Willie, a cheerful fairy serving Mother Goose, Arni Nickonen; children of Goody Green, Zoa Savor, Lempi Kytomaa and Jeanette Senese; Mamie, Nellie McDonald; Pete and Repeat, twins, Nelles Feenie, Louis Skibba; Max and Climax, twins, Walter Skibba, Albert Hill; shoe dwellers, Harriet Rosenberger, Mary Kochivar, Leon Rovelsky, Oliver Anderson, Margaret Moore, Sylvia Santini, Celia Mayrack, Rosie Kochivar; Teenie Weenie, Elmer Carlson; Plecaniny Pete, Ulysses Santini.