

DINNER FOR MISS DAVIS AND FIANCE

*Miss Dorothy Davis and Clinton W. Roenisch,
Betrothed, Honored at Dinner Given by the Bride's Parents.*

Covers were laid for 18 at the Roenisch-Davis bridal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Davis, 1728 East First street, last night, for their daughter, Miss Dorothy Davis, and her fiance, Clinton W. Roenisch of Minneapolis.

Small baskets of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley marked the places and a large basket of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley was the centerpiece at the dinner table.

Others at the table were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thornton of Winnipeg, uncle and aunt of the bride; Miss Louise Clemons of Charles City, Iowa, who will be the maid of honor; Miss Lucy Barnett, Miss Margaret Elder, Miss Constance Mitchell, Miss Katherine Van Vleck, Miss Jane Van Vleck, Paul Webster, Herrick Conklin, William Grenville and Russell Stair, all of Minneapolis, who will be the ushers; A. Laird Goodman, who will be best man, and Philip Heimbach.

Alexandra Davis and Sue Davis, the bride's young sisters, will be among the attendants. Alexandra will carry the bride's train, and Sue will carry the ring.

Austro-Hungarian Christmas Social.

A Christmas tree social will be given tomorrow night at Moose hall, 22' West First street, by the Austro-Hungarian society, for the members of the society and their families. Light lunches will be served free of charge and Christmas presents sent by Santa Claus will be handed out on which only the postage is to be paid by the receivers. A general good time is promised.

Saksonoff-Josephs Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Josephs, 321 South Seventeenth avenue East, announce the engagement of their daughter Gertrude to Charles A. Saksonoff. The wedding will take place the first part of the year.

Miss Olga Carlesen, 219 Fourth avenue East, is passing a two weeks' vacation with her parents at Spooner, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Karifsh have returned from a Christmas visit in St. Paul.

Miss Emma Mesler, Granville apartments, is entertaining Miss Lou Strudgeon of St. Paul.

Miss Elizabeth Carter of St. Paul is the guest of her parents for the holidays.

Wilfred MacDonald, 1610 East Superior street, is home from St. John's Military academy for the holidays.

Mrs. Robert Bruce Liggett and son Billy are the guests of Mrs. Liggett's parents, Dr. W. A. McClaren and Mrs. McClaren, for the holidays. Miss Mary Dillon of St. Paul will arrive tomorrow for a week-end visit at the McClaren home.

Hostesses for the meeting of the Missionary society of First Methodist church tomorrow afternoon will be Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. T. A. Armstrong, Mrs. E. N. Bellamy and Mrs. J. E. Goodman. An address on Spain from the fifth to the fifteenth centuries will be given by Professor Glycer of the high school and will be the first lecture preliminary to the study of Spain, which will be the topic of the society for the year. There will be some musical numbers. Anyone interested in the subject is invited to attend.