

LODGES ACTIVE IN DEGREE WORK

Owls to Be Entertained by Minstrel Show—Also Initiate Twenty Candidates.

SCOTTISH RITE ACTIVE DURING HOLY WEEK

Knights of Pythias to Elect Chancellor Commander—Other Activities Planned.

Degree work will be a feature of lodge activities this week, although social affairs will not be forgotten.

Duluth Nest No. 1200, Order of Owls, will be entertained with a minstrel show at its meeting Wednesday night. Thirty persons will be in the cast, all local talent, which will compose the minstrels. During a short business session, twenty candidates will be initiated in the nest.

Palestine Lodge No. 79, A. F. & A. M., will confer the third degree on several candidates tonight. The work will be exemplified by past masters. Dinner for members will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Duluth commandery No. 18, Knights Templars, will meet tomorrow night. A drill under the direction of Charles H. Fugle, commander, followed by a luncheon, will complete the program.

Scottish Rite Masons will transact business only at a meeting Thursday night. The annual reunion of the order will be celebrated during Holy week, beginning Thursday 17, and extending to April 21, at the Masonic temple. Degrees from the fifth to the thirty-second will be conferred. Special music under the direction of A. F. M. Custance will be promised. The reunion will conclude on Easter Sunday afternoon at the ceremony of re-lighting the Mystic lights, which will be extinguished Thursday night.

North Star lodge No. 55, Knights of Pythias, will hold a special meeting tomorrow night, at which time, a chancellor commander will be chosen to succeed J. P. Wharton, who resigned because of his business conditions.

Ionic lodge No. 186 A. F. & A. M., will hold a special meeting Wednesday evening. The second degree will be conferred.

The United Hebrew Brotherhood of Duluth, an organization composed of 250 Jews of the city which was organized several weeks ago, will hold its first formal meeting Sunday, April 9, at Camels' temple. The officers of the fraternity are: Robert Buchman, president; Aaron Fieldman, vice-president; Abe Feldman, secretary; H. Casimir, treasurer; David Weinberg, Joseph Vertelney, M. S. Segal, and George Harris, trustees.

Duluth Temple No. 186, Camels of the World, will initiate a class of 15 candidates Thursday night at the Camels' Temple. Following the ceremonies, a banquet will be served for new and old members.

Duluth chapter No. 59, Royal Arch Masons will confer the Mark Master degree at its meeting Wednesday at West Duluth.

Trinity lodge No. 282, A. F. & A. M., will confer the third degree at its meeting tonight.

Duluth lodge, Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, is making arrangements for the annual spring ceremonial and banquet to be held the latter part of the month, at which President Benjamin J. Samuels and Secretary A. B. Seelenfreund of the district lodge, both of Chicago will be present. At a meeting of the organization held last week, Dr. Samuel Gross and Charles D. Oreckovsky were elected delegates of the covenant lodge to the Duluth committee of the Jewish congress which will convene on April 23 at Philadelphia, Pa.

Duluth lodge No. 505, I. O. O. M., and West Duluth lodge No. 1478, I. O. O. M., will meet tomorrow night and Wednesday evening respectively.

Duluth homestead No. 3131, Brotherhood of the American Yeomen, hold its regular social dance at Maccabees hall, Wednesday evening. Cards will form the pastime for those who do not dance.

Majestic Rebekah lodge No. 60 I. O. O. F., will hold a regular business meeting Wednesday night at the Axa hall, 221 West Superior street.

Duluth lodge No. 28, I. O. O. F., will confer the initiatory degree at its meeting Friday night at Axa hall.

Arab patrol of Aad temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine is beginning work for a vaudeville show to be presented Friday and Saturday, May 5 and 6 at the Orpheum-Strand theater. A. F. M. Custance, musical director of the Shriners, will have charge of the show. The proceeds will go to the expenses of the patrol to the Imperial council meeting at Buffalo next July.

Zenith camp No. 5, Woodmen of the World meet on Friday evening.

Alpha council No. 1, Modern Samaritans will send a large delegation from Duluth tonight, to visit the council at Proctor. The program includes speeches, music, dancing and refreshments. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of A. A. Fider, H. P. Dawson, John Davis, Mrs. Nellie Lawson, Mrs. Minnie Donaldson, and Mrs. John Davis.