

LITTLE "BOY BLUE" IS GIVEN AT EVELETH

EVELETH, April 7.—Master Albert Rohrer starred in the part of Little Boy Blue, the leading role of the light musical comedy, "Boy Blue," given by the grade pupils of the Eveleth schools under the direction of Miss Emma Vogel, music supervisor, at the Eveleth auditorium tonight.

The other characters were: Mollie, Adeline Cagne; first boy, Bernard Mesberg; second boy, Harvey Buccell; third boy, Willard Kurti; katydid, Erma Polski and Bernice Siegel; frogs, Dalmon Boardman and Carl Jenkins; first elf, Rosalie Ellis; elves, pupils of third and fourth grades; fireflies, children of third and fourth grades; chorus, children of the fifth grade.

Miss Ethel Hambly was in charge of the dances. The story is one of Little Boy Blue's dream and trip to fairyland. The gymnastic exhibition under Earl C. Ford was repeated.
