

Auchel-Rivkin Wedding At Minneapolis Home.

The following account from the Minneapolis Tribune will be of interest here:

Miss Rae Rivkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rivkin, 42 Highland avenue, became the bride of Mr. Arthur B. Auchel of Duluth, Sunday night. The ceremony was performed at the North Side Commercial club-rooms. Rabbi S. M. Silber officiated. A color scheme of pink and white was used in the appointments, carnations being the flowers used.

Miss Edith Azine of Duluth and Miss Rose Goodman of St. Paul stretched the ribbons. They were gowned alike in pink.

Miss Gertrude Rivkin, a sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore a dress of pink taffeta and carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Rose Rivkin, another sister of the bride, and Miss Sarah Goodman of St. Paul. They were gowned respectively in green taffeta and yellow chiffon and wore corsage bouquets of pink and yellow rosebuds. Louis Zalk of Duluth was best man.

Miss Rose Rivkin, the bride's cousin, sang "Because," before the ceremony.

The bride, who entered with her parents who gave her in marriage, was gowned in Gros de Londres fashioned entraine and embroidered in pearls. Her veil was caught with pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Rivkin, the bride's mother, wore grey taffeta. A dinner was served in the dining room to 80 guests after which there was a reception for 200.

Mr. and Mrs. Auchel left on a trip and will be at home in Duluth after July 1.
