Master Sylvester Laskin, 626 East Seventh street, aged 20 months, is the most nearly perfect baby in Duluth, according to a decision announced yesterday, of the committee which judged the exhibits at the Scottish Rite Baby Week Festival, in which 127 infants were entered. Little Sylvester scored 99 per cent.

Julius Clinton Wolfe, 37 months old, 812 East Second street, came next with a score of 98.7 per cent, while Miss Kathryn E. Adams, 32 North Fifty-sixth avenue West, by scoring 98.5 per cent, was the only girl to crowd the winners for honors.

All First Children.

All of the prize winners are first children.

More than 24,000 notations had to be taken into account by the committee before it could make its final report. The committee checked up the reports of several doctors, which amounted to a repetition of a thousand more.

The final committee, whose report was accepted by the director, was composed of a physician, who had no connection with the original scoring, a professional woman and a business man, all of Duluth.

Master Sylvester Laskin had the the advantage of young parents, the father 29 years old and the mother 24; of being the first child, and of being breast fed.

The father of Julius Clinton Wolfe, was 29 years old and the mother 22 years of age, both Germans. For the first three months Julius was breast fed and for the balance of the time, until weaned, a combination of breast and bottle.

Girl Wins Third.

The champion of the girls, Miss Kathryn E. Adams was breast fed until weaned. Her father is 33 years old and the mother 29 years of age. The father is an American and the mother Irish.

Master James Edward Knutson, 318 North Eighteenth avenue East, crowds Miss Adams so hard with his 98.4 per cent, that he has been given honorable mention. His age is 13 months. He was breast fed at first and then breast and bottle. He is the first child. The father is 31 years of age and the mother 26 years old. The father is Norwegian and the mother of Swedish descent.
