Returned Opera Singer Brings News of Germany.

Miss Alice Sjoselius, who returned Sunday from Germany, where she filled an opera engagement at Schwerin, will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sjoselius, until the middle part of July, when she will return to Europe.

Germany still has enough food, according to Miss Sjoselius, and the crops this year promise to be unusually good. Bread cards which provide against waste, are issued, and the amount apportioned to each purchaser equals that of a hearty American breakfast.

In a letter received by Miss Sjoselius just before sailing Mrs. Marie Geist Erd said that she was going from Munich to Selzburg to join Miss Senta Erd who will sing there July 2 in a scene from "Die Freischutz," and one from "The Flying Dutchman."

Mrs. Erd and her daughter and Miss Sjoselius sailed early in January for Germany. Miss Sjoselius has made 10 appearances in opera and has done some concert work in that time. She will return by way of Bergen to sing for another manager and will reach Schwerin early in September.
