

GRAND THEATER EMPLOYEES BANQUET ON ITS SECOND ANNIVERSARY.

In commemoration of the second anniversary of the opening of the Grand theater, 75 employees and guests gave a banquet in honor of the management Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Phelps and all the actors on the bill were the guests of the theater's employees for the occasion. Roy Flaaten's orchestra furnished music for the "midnight performance" for the benefit of the diners while Ollie Dignue entertained with vocal solos, and Joe Bush and Abe Shapiro added their share to the program. Roy Brainerd acted as toastmaster.

The committee in charge consisted of William Gullingswood and Joseph McDonnell. Only those intimately associated with the theater were admitted for the special event.
