

EAST FOURTH STREET STORE SLIGHTLY BURNED

Timely discovery of flames in the clothing and shoe store owned by Sam Hoffman, 421 East Fourth street by William Rusch, enabled the fire department to extinguish a midnight blaze with a minimum loss of $150.

Walking past the store, Rusch glanced in the front window and saw a rack of clothing burning. Contents of the place suffered from fire and smoke while slight damage was done to the interior. The origin was not determined. Loss is covered by insurance.
