Application for Citizenship by Five Others Are Continued by Judge Morris.

Sixteen former subjects of European countries renounced all allegiance to their former rulers and yesterday were admitted as citizens of the United States by Federal Judge Morris. Five others who are seeking naturalization had their applications continued for further hearing. The new citizens: Harold Mannors Williams, Hans Otto Holm, Christian Hall, John Abiel Anunte, Jacob Nestor Nostrom, Izak Wiklund, David Karhonen, Charles Axel Tahtinen, Harry Berkowitz, Bert Joseph Armstrong, Ivar Salmi, John Peter Lehtonen, John Lettu, Selma Peterson, William John Wesley Scott, and Carl Eugene Hagen.

Those whose applications were continued are: John Wilmaki, John Ranta, Otto Kavalainen, Uno Sjovall, and Per Henrik Larson. One petition for naturalization was denied by the court.
