RANGE JEWS GAIN MEMBERSHIP ON HONOR ROLL OF JEWISH COMMUNITIES.

$5,000.00 Raised at Virginia Mass Meeting—Julius Shanedling and Joseph Roman Each Give 10 Per Cent of Amount Subscribed.

The most notable gathering of Jews ever held on the Range occurred Thursday evening, June 28th, at Virginia, Minnesota. A large Mass Meeting held at the Elks' Temple in the interests of the Jewish War Sufferers, was attended by Jews from all the Range towns and through the untiring efforts of Chairman Julius Shanedling of Virginia and his assistants, the meeting was a most not-able success. "Never has a more eloquent address been given in Virginia. than that which came from the lips of Rabbi Krass" says the Virginia Daily Enterprise. The Daily Virginian says: "The meeting of the Range was typical of the Jewish people. Never was there a more gripping and magnetic address ever given in Virginia, than the appeal by Doctor Krass of Brooklyn. He is an orator, an inspiration, and above all—a man. The speaking program was significant. Creeds and Religious Beliefs were lost in the cause of humanity. It was American."

Subscriptions are being taken in each of the Range towns, but aside from the money thus subscribed, the official rec-ord of the Mass Meeting, showed the following to have been pledged:

Virginia	.$2,667.60
Eveleth	945.00
Hibbing	. 760.00
Chisholm	. 583.50
Kinney	130.00
Gilbert	. 75.00

Doctor Maurice Lefkovits of Duluth, acted as Chairman of the meeting and by Max Lewis, Vice was introduced by Max Lewis, Vice Chairman of the Local Committee. Mayor Michael Boylan of Virginia, welcomed the Jewish residents of surrounding points and declared that the Irish and Jews had faced more persecution than any other people and greatly praised the work of Henry Morgenthau of New York. "We are on common of New York. "We are on common ground" he said, "and our duty is for humanity." Reverend Father W. J. Powers of "Our Lady of Lourdes" Catholic Church, who was one of the speakers, received the greatest ovation during the evening. He declared that "no longer do religious shrines hold people apart. There was a time when religion caused hate, but we now recognize that all men have the right to honor God as their conscience dictates. meeting is an inspiration for sacred duty to those suffering." Reverend C. W. Ramshaw of the Methodist Church in addressing the meeting said, "No one can help but respect the Jews for their brains and unlimited tenacity in holding to their sacred principles through his-

There were no exceedingly large gifts or donations, but each gave what they could sacrifice. Jewish women followed the example of Mrs. Samuel Milavetz stripped rings from their fingers and had them sold at auction by Doctor Lefkovits. Children gave their bank collections in pennies and small currency. The success of the Mass Meeting was not alone in the agregate donated, but also in the spirit in which the seven hundred

Jewish citizens gave. Doctor Krass with his masterly oratory, pictured vividly, the bloody chaos of Europe, to the calm of the United States. He was a master of verbal comparison.
