

HOME TOWNS DECIDE ON FAREWELL DATES

Cloquet Commercial Club to Give Its Own Recruits "Send-Off" Friday.

PARADE IS ON PROGRAM

Iron River Also Has Listed Celebration for Boys Who Joined Company B.

(News Tribune Special.)

CLOQUET, July 21.—The entertainment committee of the Commercial club has arranged a farewell program Friday night for the boys of Cloquet who have enlisted.

Several subcommittees were appointed as follows: Music and program, Fritz Freeman and Louis D.
Gerin; transportation, Albert Cox; speakers, E. S. Schelbe; banquet, J. R. Medley, Ike Markowitz and Gust Johnson.

The boys will arrive from Duluth on the 6:30 p. m. train and will be met by the City band. They will be escorted to the Y. M. C. A., where a banquet will be served. Following the banquet the boys, escorted by the band, will parade up Cloquet avenue as far as Seventh street, then south to Carlton avenue and west to Pinehurst park, where the program for the evening will be carried out. Dancing in the pavilion will follow.

More Sandstone Recruits.

(News Tribune Special.)

SANDSTONE, July 21.—Local boys who are serving with the colors are:
Jesse Ingram, Robert Davis, Charles Campbell, Frank Long, Earl Lyons, Frank Dosch, Franklyn Scott, God-
fred Walden, Edmund Robertson, Floyd Soderberg, William Maloney, Bert Taylor, John Blilem, Walter Puphal, Louis Peck, Lloyd Messer, Hartley Robey, E. W. Lunnis, Harold Golder. At the Fort Snelling training camp are: Perry Dean and Elmer Bullis.

(News Tribune Special.)

IRON RIVER, July 21.—In a few days 20 boys from this vicinity will leave for Washburn to enter upon active duty as members of Company B of the National guard. Before they leave the Iron River Commercial club proposes to give them a "send off" at the local opera house.

Crosby Adds to List.

(News Tribune Special.)

CROSBY, July 21.—Four more of Crosby's young men have offered their services to Uncle Sam. They have gone to Duluth to be mustered into service. They were: Frank Redfield, John Young, John Swanson, Oscar Erickson.

Leonard Hoagland, brother of Mrs.
Edward Krueger, has received a commission in the forestry regiment of the army.

(News Tribune Special.)

BROOKSTON, July 21.—Kar! Eklund and S. K. Duff have enlisted in the officers' reserve corps, and they expect to be called for duty in the fall. Eklund received military training while attending the state agricultural school several years ago, and Duff is a veteran of the Spanish-American war.