

CHARMING DULUTH SOCIETY GIRL IS BRIDE OF PROMINENT EASTERNER

MRS. CHARLEMAGNE TOWER, JR.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening Miss Barbara Rupley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rupley, 721 East First street, became the wife of Charlemagne Tower jr. of Philadelphia.

The ceremony was solemnized within an improvised chancel of southern smilax lighted with tall cathedral candles before an altar on which stood two seven-branched candle sticks and a bowl of Easter lilies. The families and immediate friends of the bride and bridegroom were present.

The bride's gown was an exquisite one of deep cream satin trimmed with rare old point lace that has long been in her mother's family. The dress was made en train over an under skirt of silver tissue and tulle and the long veil was held in place with orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of white roses with ribbon bowknots.

The bride was preceded by her sister, Mrs. Herbert Porter Carrow of Detroit, Mich., who as matron of honor was gowned in a dress of pastel shades of satin and tulle over silver. The gown was garlanded with roses of the same coloring and her bouquet was of Ophelia roses with ribbons of bride silver tissue.

Little Teresa Carow and Master Herbert Fleming Carrow carried the ribbons, which marked a wide aisle to the altar. The Rev. George Brewer read the service. The bridegroom's brother, Geoffrey Tower of New York, was best man.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony, at which Mrs. Rupley was assisted by Mrs. Charlemagne Tower and Miss Helen Tower of Philadelphia, mother and sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. A. M. Miller, Mrs. A. H. Viele, Mrs. John H. Upham, Mrs. August Fitger, Mrs. Cuyler Adams, Mrs. Robert M. Adams, Mrs. William P. Harrison, Miss Marion Fitger and Miss Frances Swift.

The bride's traveling costume was of brown with seal trimming and she wore a hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Tower jr. left for the east, via St. Paul, and will be at home after March 1 at 476 Manheim street, Germantown, Philadelphia.
