

---

TAKE MAN'S AUTO—USES IT, RETURNS IT WHEN THROUGH

---

"There's honor even among thieves." Somebody or another sometime or another said the foregoing.

It was illustrated last night.

Sam Vertelney, 209 West Third street, reported to the police Sunday night that his automobile was stolen from the alley in the rear of his home.

Last night Mr. Vertelney chanced into the backyard, and there, silhouetted against the skyline was his automobile.

No damage had been done the car.