

GET BALM FOR CHILD'S INJURY

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald, Eveleth, Given $1,900 for Injury to Daughter's Eye.

EVELETH, Nov. 13.—Settlement was reached in the action of Wilbert F. MacDonald and wife Margaret MacDonald, against Solomon Sax, over the injury to the MacDonald child, for $2,000, according to a notice filed in district court here today.

The district court jury awarded the plaintiff $2,500 damages during the last term of court here. Suit was brought over the injury to the MacDonald infant girl by the infant son of the defendant. The girl suffered permanent injury to her eye from a toy pistol. The contention of the plaintiff's attorney was that her chances for a successful and happy marriage were greatly handicapped by the injury.

A motion was made to set aside the verdict. An agreement was made whereby the defendants received actually $1,300 cash and all claims adjusted.

Attorney J. J. Gibblin, who appeared for the defense placed a claim for $675 attorney fees.
