

BASKET BALL IN FULL SWING ON BOYS' DEPARTMENT FLOOR

Some interesting arguments featured the basket ball contests staged on the floor of the boys' department Y. M. C. A. last night. In the intermediate group team No. 1 defeated No. 2 by the close score of 12 to 11. It was a nip-and-tuck battle all the way. Cliff Wiberg's quint has not lost a game yet.

In the grade school intermediate league, Owen Whiteside's team took the measure of team No. 1 and No. 6 walloped No. 5.

In the senior class Ellswood Scott's five won from the team led by Reuben Hunter by default. Some excellent material is looming up in the latter class, and indications are that the boys' department will be represented by a strong five during the coming winter.

There will be no games tonight, but tomorrow night some interesting contests will be pulled off. A team composed of John Fishman, Lester Steurwald, Felix Litman, Art Olson, and Casper Sponnick will clash with a crew made up of Billy Anderson, John Gronseth, Ed Harris, Wyman Horr and George Ault. Edmund Lord's team will also play Reuben Hunter's aggregation.
