JIMMY AZINE.

BATTLING SLOVAN LOOKS GOOD FOR MANSERTH SCRAP

Works Out With Jimmy Azine.
Latter Is Down to Weight for Moore Tomorrow Night.

If Battling Slovan fights in the ring the way he trains, he will make Walter Manserth of Morgan Park "go some" tomorrow night in their 10-round bout as part of the Azine-Moore card to be staged at Superior Grand Opera.

Slovan hopped through six fast rounds with Jimmy Azine yesterday afternoon in the rear room of the Schaeffer-Macauley cigar store. The Gary, Ind., boy looks like a comer and did some fast work in dodging Azine's shower of blows.

Many See Azine.

More than 200 Duluth fight fans gathered to see Azine go through his training stunts. Jimmy is down to weight now and looks to be in the pink of condition. He shadowed boxed six rounds, skipped the rope and then took on all comers. Battling Slovan's showing surprised the fans. He is fast on his feet and has a wicked left. Reports from Manserth's training camp state that Walter is getting on in a fast way and if all of them are true the boys should put up a real corking battle.

Mike McNulty, Roy Moore and Ray "Kid" Johnson are expected in the Twin Ports some time today. Moore and Johnson will go through light workouts. McNulty writes that Moore came out of the Herman scrap without a scratch and is in good shape. Johnson has been training faithfully for the last few months and is ready to take on Kid Alexander, the Pacific coast knockout king.

Sweeney Boastful.

Knockout Sweeney and Kid Taylor, who will furnish the curtain raiser act, also are in tip-top form.

Tickets for the scrap are going at a fast rate and officials of the Twin Ports Athletic club believe that all the ringside seats will be sold out by the time the door opens.

Azine will work out this afternoon at the same place, as also will Battling Slovan.
