

BOYS' GLEE CLUB, IRONWOOD HIGH SCHOOL, SING AT ENTERTAINMENTS.

IRONWOOD, Mich., Dec. 25.—Mirth and melody are aplenty at the Ironwood high school because of the glee club that is an attractive departure at the school. Numerous social, civic and school entertainments are livened by the melodious songs given by the members of this glee club. The Glee club is under the direction of John C. Watson, who has drilled boys into singing harmoniously en masse at the Ironwood high school for the last eight years.

The members of the Glee club, are, from left to right: Top row—James Gribble, Romanus Nadolney, Joe Tolan, George Sanderson, Howard Gitchell, Edgerton Williams, Russell Slade, Merritt Tomlinson, Harry Mark, Richard Ninnis, Allan Shaw, Roy Johnson. Second row—Lloyd Trezise, Clifford Trethewey, Orlo King, John C. Watson, director; Clarence Erickson, Ernest Dear, Frank Soraruf, John Weber, Richard Heideman.
