

FOREIGN-BORN STUDENTS STUDY ENGLISH

A club for the study and practice of correct English and public speaking was organized on Wednesday evening by the foreign-born pupils of the Tanis school of English. A number of pupils took part in a program which included vocal numbers by Miss Ellen Schlender, and violin selections by Hyme Cohen of Superior. Albert Johnstad of the Johnstad school of shorthand, the speaker of the evening, gave a talk on the value of a business education for the daily affairs of life. He emphasized the importance of letter writing and correct methods in penmanship. Leo Bensman was chairman of the meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Alex Kyyhkynen; vice president, Charles Getchas; secretary, Anna Green, vice secretary, Wilma Fritscher; sergeant, George Saras; reception committee, Anna Blad, Olaf Servick and Charles Barros.

The officers elected represent six nationalities. The preparation for the bi-weekly programs are under the direction of the school.
