

HIGH-GRADE STUDENTS PLACED ON HONOR ROLL

*Classes on a Par in Scholarship, Says Principal Young,
Who Announces Names at Chapel.*

One hundred and forty-one students of Central high school received an average of 90 or above in at least three subjects for the month ending March 23, according to the "honor roll" read by Principal Leonard Young at chapel exercises yesterday morning. The individual classes are about on a par in scholarship. Fifteen seniors made 90 or above in four subjects or more; 14 freshmen came second on this list; the sophomores had 12 represented. The juniors were fourth with 10. The first year class had 25 on the list for students who obtained 90 or above in at least three subjects; the seniors and juniors were tied, each having 2; the sophomores were one behind with 21.

The list follows:

A list (90 or above in four subjects).

Seniors—Evelyn Ahlen, Elsie Ario (five subjects), Ellen Beatty, Robert Berkelman, Elizabeth Carrs, Eloise Lawrence, Bessie Levine, Sadie Levine, Susie Lovald, Muriel Nelson, Ruth Nelson, Florence Olson, La Verne Peterson, Cecil Rigstad, Sarah Weinberg.

Juniors—Ruby Britts, Gertrude Cameron, Burdett Clarke, Florence Fawcett, Le Roy Grettum, James Johnson, Eleanor Keyes, Nora Rich, Fredric Schaefer, Faith Weiss.

Sophomores—Hasting Barber, Doris Broadfoot, Dorothy Collins, Lester Forgy, George Hittler, Grace O'Brien, Louise Pedrizetti, Otto Person, Hickman Powell, Raymond Schneider, Richard Sellwood, John Sullivan.

Freshmen—Marian Bailey, Ethel Carlson, Edith Colter, Ruth Devoy, George Gorton, Herman Griffith, Virginia Harding, Harry Levine, Grace MacDonald, Ruth Miller, Emily Pavetta, Stanley Rask, Sadie Schneider, Leif Skiele.

B list (90 or above in three subjects).

Seniors—Clara Ario, James Bardwell, Adolph Broman, Percy Casson, Helen Christopher (six subjects), Marion Dunning, Vivian Hamby, Ethel Hansen, Edith Hogan, Herbert Johnson, Leona Leibovitz, Clarence MacGregor, Henry Markkanen, Clarence Mentzer, Alice Nyman, Dorothy Regli, Beatrice Spengler, Phoebe Stark, Frances Stevenson, Helen Walker, Jessie Weinstein, Mabel Wing.

Juniors—Mildred Ahl, Victor Benda, Olga Broman, Moe Buchman, Helen Budzynski, William Eaton, Bessie Fairbanks, Lillie Friedman, Nell Guinn, Anna Holt, Randal Jaques, Raymond Larsen, Harold Lindberg, Anne McEwen, Mary McGiffert, Ned McNulty, Katherine Matter, Eva Neil, Mildred Norman, Ruby Stearns, Julie Watson, Elsa Zachow.

Sophomores—Nora Anderson (six subjects), Verna Appleby, Edith Berry, Agnes Bradley, Harold Christman, Malcolm Dunlop, Lambert Engwall, Parmelee Haugrud, Dorothy Kearns, Donald MacGregor, Herman Myhrman, Paul O'Brien, Irma Peterson, Henry Pollinsky, George Ribensack, Jessie Rodgers, Grant Stephens, Gilbert Stevenson, Marion Thomas, Esther Vortruba, Lena Winer.

Freshmen—Sigrid Amundsen, Walter Anderson, Helen Stillson, Edwin Bolander, Helen Brownson, Harold Campbell, Jackie Coran, Gilbert Dickerman, George Dworschak, Percy Gling, Cyril Grams, Julius Howard, William Jensen, Sylvia Josephs, Ida Kaplan, Gerda Langlee, Doris McDonald, Audrey McEwen, Jack Mitchell, Agatha Norton, Reuben Shemick, Thelma Unden, Eleanor Westman, Bertha Ekstrom and Alfred Rosenberg.

Mrs. M. R. Smith, Northland Country club, is visiting in New York, Washington and Chicago for a few weeks. Mrs. Smith has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John I. Cassidy in Washington and is now in New York for a week's stay before going to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Gibson of Waynesburg, Pa., are the parents of a 10-pound boy, born March 25. Mrs. Gibson was formerly Miss Genevieve Gullickson, and was employed in the office of the Duluth Associated Charities for several years.