

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS SEARCH FOR "ARTISTS"

EVELETH, April 1.—Woe to the one caught mutilating the interior of the Eveleth high school. A police committee of students has been appointed to apprehend persons marring the walls. This committee is legislative, judicial and executive.

A strict vigil has been kept all week and although none have been taken into custody by the youths, no more marks have appeared on the inside of the building.

The boys who are doing the sleuth work are: Maurice Greenberg, Ellis Huttala, Arthur Lampi, Elmer Lampi and Marcus Rabinowitz. They are working independently of the school officials.

They are to make arrests and punish violators themselves without consulting anyone.
