

FEW DULUTHIANS SEND MESSAGES FOR PEACE

One Telegraph Company Transmits 25 Dispatches Advocating Policy of Tranquillity.

That Duluth has its quota of pacifists who are urgent for peace was indicated yesterday by the number of telegrams sent to President Wilson, Congressman Clarence B. Miller and Senator Knute Nelson, asking them to do all in their power to prevent the United States from becoming embroiled in the world conflict.

Rev. Paul Braetzel, pastor of St. Paul's German Evangelical church, S. Karen, president of the Adas Israel and Chevra Kodisha congregations, Ben Goldish, secretary, and members of the Swedish Mission church were among those who wired peace messages and resolutions opposing war.

Twenty-five messages advocating a policy of tranquillity in the face of Germany's submarine campaign were sent over the Western Union wires to Washington, D. C.; yesterday and a number, one having 100 signatures, were transmitted over the Postal Telegraph wires.
