

WHO'S WHO AT CLOQUET

(News Tribune Special.)

CLOQUET, Minn., July 31.—Misses Sofia Kleckner and Josephine Ausman of Minneapolis are visiting at the home of the former's father Fred Kleckner.

Misses Lillian Ryan and Helen Phellon are Duluth visitors today.

J. F. O'Brien is in Duluth on business today.

Mrs. Adam Brotherton of Superior is a guest at the J. F. Ryan home.

I. Kaner of Duluth is a guest at the J. Kaner home.

Miss Esther Jacobson and brother Antone of Moose Lake are visiting at the John Samuelson home.

Miss Gladys Hubert returned from Duluth today, after a visit with her cousin, Miss Gertrude Greenwood.

Gilmore Peterson of Minneapolis passed a few days this week at the E. Peterson home.

John Schlenk is a Duluth visitor today.

Miss Pearl Riddington left today for a visit in Duluth and Superior.

Miss Jennie Nordquist is a Carlton visitor today.

Mrs. A. Anchel returned to her home in Duluth after a visit at the Sam Rivkin home.

Miss Hildur Wennerlund left yesterday for Fergus Falls, where she will attend summer school.

Mrs. O. J. Fryklund and daughter Dorothy returned from Ashland yesterday.

Miss Olive Holm is visiting friends in Duluth this week.

Miss Julia Samuelson returned from Duluth today after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. A. Troeppl.

Miss Eva Young left today for Duluth, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Gaylord Halverson.

Miss Aileen Meagher is visiting Miss Gertrude Leimer at Superior this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sturbentz of Duluth are visiting relatives here.

Misses Marie Schommer and Celia Kamps of Appleton, Wis., are guests of Miss Sadie Schliedermeier.

George and Albin Johnson, who are stationed at Duluth, will pass the evening at their home here.