

JEWES WILL HONOR ENLISTED MEN

Hebrew Brotherhood Society Ar- ranges for Demonstration in Maccabee Hall.

A farewell demonstration for the young Jewish patriots of the city will be given tomorrow night at Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue North, beginning at 8:30, according to announcements sent out yesterday by M. J. Segal, secretary of the Hebrew Brotherhood society.

The heroes of the evening will be the young men who have gone in regular service and the young men who are to go in the draft army. The organization has sent seven into regular service, including one first lieutenant; nine into the navy, and 15 have been drafted who did not claim exemption.

The principal speakers will be Bernard Silberstein, Dr. Maurice Lefkowitz, Dr. A. H. Schwartz, Abe Feldman, M. S. Winthrop and Sigmond M. Slonim. A violin solo will be given by Harry Segal, accompanied by Miss Mary Simon, and refreshments and other entertainments will be furnished by a committee composed of Mrs. H. Segal, Mrs. S. H. Cassmir and Mrs. Ida Goldfine.

The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of H. Witz, David Weinberg, S. J. Sher, C. D. Oreckovsky, S. H. Kassmir, C. P. Meyers, H. Segal, H. Cassmir, Joe Vertelney and J. Chessner.
