

WOODEN DART MAKES MR. CUPID SHY, BUT IT GETS $2,500 FOR GIRL

VIRGINIA, Sept. 17.—Margaret, 7-year-old daughter of Wilber F. McDonald of Eveleth, was awarded $2,500 damages against Solomon Sax of Eveleth for an injury to her left eye, said to have been caused four years ago by Simon Sax, son of the defendant.

A scaled verdict returned in district court Friday night was opened by Judge Edward Freeman. It is claimed the eye was impaired by a wooden dart shot from a toy gun.

The little girl's attorneys asserted her chances for matrimony in later years would be impaired by the physical defect.
