

SUCCESS CROWNS BRAINERD SUPPER OF CONSERVATION

Men Prepare Meal at Meeting of Chamber of Commerce. New Members Accepted.

BRAINERD, Feb. 23.—The conservation supper of pancakes, syrup, war bread and cakes, sausages, Crow Wing county butter, coffee and cream given at the chamber of commerce was a success. The essentials were provided by G. W. Smith.

The house and social committees officiated. Stirring batter and baking cakes were F. E. Stout, Carl Wright and G. W. Smith. Presiding at the coffee urn was Frank G. Hall. Taking tickets were Fred T. Lincoln and Albert J. Ellison. Assisting in waiting was R. M. Sheets. The chamber of commerce gave Mr. Smith a rising vote of thanks for the courtesy he had shown in supplying the supper menu.

Twelve Made Members.

Twelve new applicants were accepted as members: W. H. Wagner of the Patek company presented by A. L. Hoffman; E. G. Smith, traveling man; Judge Gustav Halverson; F. S. Workman of the Best theater; Harold E. Webb of the Parker & Topping company, presented by Fred T. Lincoln; W. A. M. Johnstone, clerk of the district court and Samuel B. Hendershott of the Pan Motor company, presented by Henry I. Cohen; Samuel Kosenzweig of the Ransford hotel and L. R. Tanner of the Tanner Mill company, presented by John A. Hoffbauer; Corp. Raymond Lowery presented by Carl Wright; V. Dresser of a creamery company presented by F. H. Simpson; Robert Duerr presented by Frank G. Hall.

The chamber of commerce approved of a contract with John F. Hurley of the Brainerd public market, the chamber to pay $5 towards the monthly rental in March, April and May, and for one telephone, local produce of the county and adjacent territory to be handled.

The membership committee will meet Monday evening to inaugurate a rousing campaign for a larger membership. H. W. Linnemann is the chairman. A. L. Hoffman and Fred Farrar told how the campaign was conducted when the chamber was organized.
