

INFORMATION

A truck driver returning from Cloquet reports that Mr. and Mrs. Nick Murray and seven children, Murray's mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Thompson and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tamora and one child, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and four children and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse and four children are safe. The dwellings of these people were saved after a hard fight. No one was injured.

Mrs. S. Karon and daughter Elsie, 601 Banks avenue, Superior, are safe at the Holland hotel. They were at their summer home at Arnold, which was completely destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Riney and two children of Cloquet, who are among the fire sufferers, are being cared for at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Maser, 611 East Sixth street. The other three children are at the home of W. Robinson, 16 West First street.

Modern Woodmen have established fire relief for members at the hall, Twenty-first avenue West and First street.

If anything is known of Louis Pogogelski, sometimes known as Louis Wise, one-armed, last seen at Superior, it is desired by his family who are with Mrs. S. Ramstad, 1401 East Ninth street.

Leona Gaskill would like to get some information concerning Charles Gaskill and his wife and four children. Call Melrose 6592.

The Cloquet relief committee would like to get any news concerning any of the following: Mrs. Arthur Blunher, Steve La Londe, Mrs. Olga Loumi, Frank Galquist and his family.

The daughter of Nick Nelmele, reported as dead, wants information concerning the location of her mother and sister. She is safe at Hibbing.